

| | |
|-----------------------------|-----------------------------|
| Subject | Civil and Business Law |
| Course: | Commercial and Company Law |
| Professor in charge: | Prof. Dr. Maike Rieve-Nagel |

Target group: 1 st year students

Lectures: 3h per sem.

Aims: To acknowledge the importance of legal problems in business, to solve basic legal problems independantly

Contents:

1. Term of "merchant"
2. Representation of merchant (Proxy, power of attorney)
3. Company's name and Companies register
4. Liability in business-takeover
5. Special regulations for trading operations
6. Special regulations for international trading (CISG, Incoterms, international civil law)
7. Trading companies (Establishment, Liability, executive board, representation)

Methods: Lecture, seminary teaching

Examination: Written exam

Literature Legal regulations for BGB, CISG, EGBGB, HGB, GmbHG

Language: German

Case Studies: Collection of case studies in the lecturing script